

Press Release

September 20th, 2013

Several MPs/MLAs with declared cases of Promoting Enmity between Religious Groups and Committing Acts intended to Outrage Religious Feelings: Political Parties continue to field such candidates.

By giving tickets to candidates who have been charged with promoting enmity between religious groups and for committing acts that are intended to outrage religious feelings, political parties have been in a way abetting to circumstances that lead to events such as communal riots and violence between different groups.

Association for Democratic Reforms(ADR) and National Election Watch (NEW) has analyzed the self sworn affidavits of candidates who have contested in Parliamentary and State Assembly Elections since 2008. For the purpose of our analysis we have considered the following sections of the Indian Penal Code:

1. Section 153A (Promoting enmity between different groups on ground of religion, race, place of birth, residence, language, etc., and doing acts prejudicial to maintenance of harmony)
2. Section 295 (destruction, damage, or defilement of a place of worship or an object held sacred, with intent to insult the religion of a class of persons)
3. Section 295A (Deliberate and malicious acts intended to outrage religious feelings)

DISCLAIMER:

- This report is based on an analysis of the self sworn affidavits submitted by candidates, with the Election Commission of India, prior to contesting Elections.
- ADR and NEW are not aware of the current status of the criminal cases declared by the candidates. We will know about their current status in case these candidates contest another election and submit a fresh affidavit.
